Assembly member calls for councils to stop contributions to Lee Valley

ROW STIRS OVER PARK'S FUNDING

OFFICIALS at the Lee Valley Regional Park have hit back at suggestions from a London Assembly member that its funding be cut.

All councils across London contribute a combined £8.9million to help run the vast park, which covers 26 miles across east London, Essex and Hertfordshire.

However, Conservative Richard Tracey, who represents Merton and Wandsworth on the Greater London Authority, describes this as a 'tax' on the councils and called for the park to 'stand on its own two feet'.

In his report 'London's Hidden Charge: Ending the Lee Valley Tax', Mr Tracey said: "Borough councils took over its funding when the GLC was abolished in 1986, but this has become an anachronism with bizarre financial consequences for boroughs.

"For example the park had 376,749 visitors from Waltham Forest in 2011/12 and the council contributed £224,309, making for an average cost to the borough per visitor of 60 pence.

"Compare this to Merton and Wandsworth, which had an average cost per visitor of around £19.80. Merton had only 11,139 visitors but paid £220,206, and Wandsworth had 18,944 visitors and paid £375,162.

"And in Hounslow, the average visitor cost was as high as £39.45.

"Clearly this is an inequitable situation that cannot stand. The arrangement siphons off funds from boroughs where they could be spent locally and council taxpayers could reap the benefit."

Mr Tracey, who was an Environment Minister under Margaret Thatcher during his 14 years as an MP for Surbiton, called on the park to raise more money from visitors, make better use of its facilities and on government to change the law and end the funding.

However, chairman of the Lee Valley Regional Park Authority, Derrick Ashley, described Mr Tracey as 'naïve' and said the taxpayer is already getting a better deal.

"He is naïve to suggest that any service like this can be self-funding," Mr Ashley said. "As local authorities up and down the country know, running parks, and sports and leisure venues cannot be done without some level of subsidy.

"We have already brought this subsidy down. In the last five years we have cut from 70 per cent to 50 per cent the proportion of the funding we receive from the taxpayer.

"We are determined to bring this down further and generate more income ourselves.

"It is my job as chairman to deliver on the Authority's statutory remit and its promise on nature, sport, leisure and recreation up and down the 26 mile long Lee Valley Regional Park for the lowest cost – currently around £1 per person per year."

Mr Ashley highlighted the opening of the Lee Valley White Water Centre at Broxbourne as one new attraction available to the public, with the Velopark and Hockey and Tennis Centre – also legacies from the Olympics – also coming.

"Our focus is getting on with the job of running an increasingly popular park. If individuals have ideas of ways to change the funding mechanism then that will need to be agreed with the local authorities and then pursued through the parliamentary process," Mr Ashley added.

HITTING BACK: Park Authority chairman Derrick Ashley says Richard Tracey's view is 'naïve'.

Band McFlies in to meet up with young volunteers

TEENAGE volunteers from a Barking & Dagenham youth project got the surprise of their lives when they came face to face with the King of the jungle and the King of the dance floor.

Harry Judd and Dougie Poynter from pop group McFly popped into a volunteering session for youth program Community Space Challenge to congratulate the project on being voted Best Environment Project in this year's National Lottery Awards.

The five volunteers had been invited to London under the ruse of sharing their volunteering knowledge at the Bermondsey branch of the project. Instead they were joined on the East London housing estate by two unlikely new helpers in the form of Dougie and Harry. Evaldo Cursino Dias, 18, Kyle Carvell, 15, Chris Montengo, 17, Roy Kotulski, 17, Joseph Neal, 17, and Eni Punxhaj, 18, were more than a little shocked to see the celebrities lending a hand.

Drummer Harry said: "For some youngsters being in gangs and hanging around the streets seems like the only way to pass time."

"The volunteers I've spoken to are so grateful to be given the opportunity to make a difference to the area and are so proud of what they're achieving."

Projects manager Paul Pearce was stunned to see the McFly boys when they made a surprise appearance at a Community Space Challenge clean-up event on a London housing estate.

Paul was equally as shocked to be presented with a National Lottery Award.

Barking & Dagenham Community Space Challenge has two current projects - Baseline YIP and Barking & Dagenham Youth Crime Prevention Team.

Council sets up new firm to help people into housing

BARKING & Dagenham Council has set up a new company to help working people find it easier to get an affordable place to live.

Barking and Dagenham Resident will allocate 477 new homes being built across two sites in Barking - Eastern End of Thames View, and William Street Quarter. It will also manage and maintain the homes.

The company will be owned by the council, but will be run as a separate entity. The homes will be owned by the private developer, which is funding the development. They will be transferred to full council ownership after 60 years.

The homes will be rented out at 50 per cent, 65 per cent and 80 per cent of market rents. For example, that means that if a property has a market rate rent of £800 per month the rent will be £400, £520 and £640 respectively.

Three quarters of the properties will be let out at the 80 per cent market rate, a small number at 65 per cent, and one fifth at 50 per cent.

The 50 per cent homes will be allocated to people on the housing waiting list through the Choice Homes website, along the same lines as council housing. The 65 per cent and 80 per cent rents will only be allocated to working people who can prove they are in employment.

First priority will be given to employed council tenants, or housing association tenants, living in the borough. Next priority will go to employed people on the housing waiting list, followed by employed residents of the borough.

People who have lived in Barking and Dagenham for five years will get priority.

Councillor Phil Waker, the council's cabinet member for housing, said: "I regularly meet working people in the borough who are caught in a trap where they can't afford to buy a home, but don't qualify for council housing. Inevitably, they end up in private rented accommodation which can be extremely expensive which traps them further because they are unable to save for a deposit due to the high rent. "They are the forgotten victims of Britain's housing crisis, and through Barking and Dagenham Reside, we want to offer them new hope."

Mr Waker said that similar options will be available on other council new-builds such as the Leys and Goresbrook Village estates renewals.

School marks extension

A £3.4MILLION extension at Farnham Green Primary School has been celebrated.

Work began on site in January 2011 when Morgan Sindall was appointed to the design and build project by Redbridge Council.

The extension provides the previous single-storey building with an additional floor, six new classrooms for years five and six, new sports hall facilities, a kitchen area, an ICT suite, group rooms and administration offices.

External developments at the school in Royal Close, Seven Kings, also included an expansion of the pupil's outdoor play area and additional parking facilities to accommodate the rise in pupil numbers expected in the years ahead.

The project is set to achieve a Building Research Establishment Environmental Assessment Method rating of 'Very Good' and features responsiwater attenuation tanks. Guests on the day – including Redbridge mayor

Muhammed Javed - were treated to a variety of performances from the pupils.

Join friends group

THE Friends of Goodmayes is looking for more volunteers to join up.

The group provides a shop and tea bar at the Sunflowers Court mental health inpatient unit on the Goodmayes Hospital site.

It also raises money to provide additional items for the unit and its surroundings to improve the service user experience, which do not come from health service funding.

They recently raised funds to help convert a disused area of outdoor space into a wheelchair accessible vegetable garden, which opened in July this year.

Service users took part in every step of the process from seeding, watering, weeding through to harvesting. It is also used as an educational tool to promote health and wellbeing to service users as part of their recoveries. Olive Joyce, who volunteers with the group, said: "The Friends of Goodmayes is a lovely group of volunteers who dedicate some of their time each week to helping to improve the overall experience of mental health service users."

"Sometimes, this is through fundraising for extra equipment for ward areas and sometimes this can be just through having a chat with a service user or carer over a cup of tea!"

Full training is given and you would always be working with an experienced volunteer.

Charity gets a helping hand

A CHARITY project has received a helping hand thanks to a donation of paint and brushes from Barking & Dagenham Council's housing service.

DABD (uk) needed help with supplies to decorate one of the buildings at its Valence Wood Road branch in Dagenham. After a request to the Council, the Housing Rapid Response and Improvement teams were able to source the equipment needed for the job.

Councillor Phil Waker, the council's cabinet member for housing, handed over the supplies to DABD's director of operations Stephanie Healey, director of business strategy Elaine James and staff members Katharine Ayres and Maureen Clancy.

They were joined by Response staff Danny Barry, Lee Barry, CHARITY: Volunteers with the donated goods.

Sean Clarke and Gary Hawkey.

The decorating will be done by a team of 60 staff from Premier Inn and the attached Brewer's Fayre restaurant. The Valence Wood Road branch is home to DABD's accessible transport and wheelchair loan programme.

It will also be used for the Warm Space project, turning it into a place where vulnerable residents can go to keep warm during the winter.

Lesley Hawes, DABD CEO, said: "We are extremely grateful to the council's Rapid Response Improvement Team for supplying the paint and equipment for the project and supporting DABD (uk) and the local community"

Do you know this man?

POLICE have released an image of a man they want to speak to in connection with an attack on a members of staff at Barking rail station.

A man entered the station at around 11.40pm on Friday, October 26, and approached the ticket barriers. He attempted to use an invalid ticket and became verbally abusive to staff when he could not get through.

The man then used his Oyster card to get through the barriers before approaching a member of staff and headbutting him.

A colleague stepped in to restrain the man, but was also punched in the face as a result. The man then left the station.

PC Greig Watkins, the investigating officer based at Barking station, said: "Staff should be free to carry out their jobs without being abused or intimidated. British Transport Police does not tolerate staff assaults of any kind and we will work to identify those responsible and bring them to justice."

"If anyone recognises the man pictured, or knows his whereabouts, then please get in touch."

Anyone with information should contact British Transport Police on Freephone 0800 40 50 40 quoting B9/LNA of 14/11/12 or call the independent charity, Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Car dealership staff complete charity challenges

STAFF at Dagenham Motors in Barking have been doing their bit for charity over the past few weeks.

A team of three senior managers have completed a 1,600-mile motorcycle ride, which raised £4,500 for the automotive industry charity,

BEN.

Chief executive Stuart Kerr, together with colleagues Shaun Allen and Jon Harte, took part in a motorcycle rally from Dover to Monaco.

Meanwhile, a team of eight staff from the dealership in Ripple Road took part in a 13,000ft skydive for local charity, Parents of Autistic Children Together (PACT).

Matt Jolly, Jason Claridge, Darren Neville, Tony Hines, Craig Edwards, Mark Smith, Bally Kaul and Carly Ball took the death defying leap.

Matt said "We wanted to do something big that would inspire our colleagues, friends and family to sponsor us and you can't get much bigger than a 13,000 foot skydive!

"PACT is a wonderful charity and we are thrilled that we are able to help them continue their great work."

PACT is a voluntary organisation that aims to support the needs of families, carers and friends of children with Autistic Spectrum Disorders living in Barking & Dagenham, Havering and Redbridge.

Elvis memorabilia to go under the hammer to raise cash for charity

MEMORABILIA donated by Elvis Presley's daughter Lisa Marie will be up for grabs as a special auction item at The Dream Factory's charity ball.

Lisa Marie, who is a patron of the charity, has donated two encased photographs of Elvis' Graceland home at Christmas – one in the snow and one of the iconic property lit up at night.

There is also a blue light bulb from the Graceland Christmas decor.

Bids can be made by e-mailing The Dream Factory founder Avril Mills at avril.dreams@gmail.com

Bids will also be accepted at The Dream Factory's 'Putting on the Glitz' Ball which is being held at the Prince Regent Hotel, Woodford Bridge, on Saturday.

The auction will take place on the night.

Avril said: "This is an amazing item of memorabilia and I can't say a big enough thank you to Lisa Marie for donating it to The Dream Factory.

"This year's ball promises to be a really great night raising lots of money for the charity to enable us to continue making many dreams come true for children and young adults with life-limiting conditions."

A host of celebrities will be attending the ball, including EastEnders stars Patsy Palmer, who is also a patron of the charity, and Sid Owen, who has appeared in the current series of Strictly Come Dancing.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:
1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.
3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

(a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
(b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or

(c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers

Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category

All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection

The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. Classified Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the Advertiser will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect for an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.
